

Summer Swallow

Our Mid Strength Ale is deliberately light body but has an interesting hop profile of melon & summer fruit aroma with a tart finish. A refreshing beer that perfectly complements the aroma of freshly mown lawn, we recommend you enjoy it after cutting the grass! A great thirst quencher for our Australian Summer.

Sylva Bullet - Sunday Pils

This German inspired Pilsner uses Sylva hops for aroma and flavour giving it a honey sweet aroma. The pale malts provide a slightly cloudy appearance and a pleasantly noticeable body. The Green Bullet bittering hops linger and you savour the pilsner on any given Sunday. It is a hard act to follow!!

Platypus - Aussie Pale Ale

The Platypus comes from us, [duck] and the Willamette hops [bill]. Early Holden's were painted a Platypus grey, hence the label colour. There is a pleasant earthy / woody hop aroma that complements the all Australian malt sweetness and body. As a medium bodied beer, Australian Pale Ales are intended to be rewardingly refreshing, but not overwhelming.

Golden Goose - American Pale Ale

This American Pale Ale has been created as a vessel for fresh Tasmanian Cluster hop flowers. The first impression of aromas of passionfruit and citrus aromas really stands out. The light body accentuates the bitterness and provides a platform for the hops to display their full flavours and aromas.

Mother Duck - American Pale Ale

This American Pale Ale is a collaboration with Mother's Milk in Sawtell NSW. There is a lot going on in the beer, with three malt profiles and four hop profiles there is a big sweet, fruity, floral aroma that is backed up by a solid mouthfeel and balanced with a mild bitterness that caps the beer off nicely.

Heron's Craic - Irish Red Ale

Made for the wandering Paddy yearning for home, we have used water as pure as the driven snow, and the subtle aroma of noble UK Fuggle hops set the scene of rolling fields of green and fences made of stone. There is a caramel sweet undertone and a hint of dark roast that give this beer a delicious flavour profile. Enjoy with a hearty stew or a mountain of Colcannon.

Traditional Dark Ale

The light body of this dark ale allows the aromas and flavours of chocolate and coffee to really stand out. The pale choc malts used for the dark colour have been lightly roasted and as a result keep the flavour and body light. This is a surprising dark beer that can be enjoyed all year round.

Indian Runner - India Pale Ale

The India Pale Ale originates from Britain. These beers were made higher in alcohol and bitterness that provided a natural means of preserving the beer during the ship voyage from Britain to the Indian colonies. This beer is true to the UK style with higher alcohol and higher bitterness, a sweet caramel middle and some earthy hop aromas to complete the palette.

Phoenix Migration Stout

There is a whole lot of darkness in this dangerously drinkable Export Stout. Three different dark roast malts that give a complexity of sweetness, coffee, burnt toast, alcohol warms and a hint of aniseed from the aptly named Phoenix hops. A big stout that will keep you interested well into the next glass.
